Dear Emmy, Your letter, dated June 24" came to hand on the 6" inst, I intended to have answered it yesterday. You say you had not received a letter from me for a long time. I am afraid I have rather neglected my duty to my dear little wife. but the fact is, we did not get our mail very regularly here. and I could not bear to write without a letter from you to answer. This is a very poor excuse but I know, you will like it better than to think thats I thought of you less, than usual. I am very sorry to hear of the accident that happened, to your poor little arm. If I were with you I think I could do something for it, even if it was no more than to hiss it. I hape to hear very soon that you are quite well though such an ingury might prove very serious. so you must feel that I am very anxious to hear from you again My health is so good that I am sur prised at it. I don't think lever enjoy ed so good at home. The regt is as healthy as can be expected, they have been worked very hard, having been at work nearly every night for a month, erecting batteries, they are completed at last, and the attack will commence tomarrow, I am very sure Gen Vodges compliments our regt, very highly on their work. My health is so good that I am surprised at it. I dont think I ever enjoy ed as good at home. The regt is as healthy as can be expected, they have been worked very hard, having been at work nearly evry night for a month, erecting batteries, they are completed at last, and the attack will commence tomorrow. I am very sure, Gen. Vodges compliments our regt, very highly on their work. He says it is as good a regt as there is on the island. We are to be held as a reserve in the coming engage ment, and may not be called in at all, and even if we are, my duty does not put me in a position of any danger, so you need not be uneasy on my accor Imust congratulate sister Ruth on the possession of her baly and I hape to hear in your next that she is doing well. Tell her to kis her baby every day for me give my love to them all. I must congratulate sister Ruth on the possession of her baby, and I hope to hear in your next that she is doing well. Tell her to kiss her baby every day for me give my love to them all. Tell them that I think of them every day, and am in hopes to see them all, sometime, though there is no prospect of having that pleasure at present. I beleive I mentioned something about a peice of print that I was going to send you, but it got mislaid and did not go the last mail, and I shall send it by this. I have not time to write but little this time, but will write again in a few days, and let you know what success we meet with Hoping to hear from you soon and often. I remain as ever, truly yours L.
