Ma darling, I have englished you as as nat till the last minute, and now heaved line to write you a dient letter: But commistances have bein very much against one to day certainly, Mother and with an accident yesterday. Soumed her foot while out phymeny yesterday so that the cannot walk a slep. So I have had a great deal of work to do to day, anow than I should of I had had it all to do yesterday for them I should have down been prepared to have gone to meding to day. But I was bound to go will did go after doing quite to baking I expected Mr Tellon would ask me whether I was lated or early us

Hampstead July 23<sup>d</sup>/65 My darling, I have neglected you as usual till the last minute, and now havnt time to write you a decent letter. But circumstances have been very much against me to-day certainly. Mother met with an accident yesterday. Lamed her foot while out pluming yesterday so that she cannot walk a step. So I have had a great deal of work to do to-day, more than I should if I had had it all to do yesterday for then I should have done been prepared to have gone to meeting to-day. But I was bound to go and I did go after doing quite a baking I expected Mr. Felton would ask me whether I was late or early as he ded once before but he chiloit-Stow I wanted to write to you and have bein thinking all the week what a nier time I would have writing to you to night but after I got home I had supper to get and the clashes to wash ele, and before I get through Adeline come in and wanted me to take a walk und I couldn't say no us I ought. Then when I get home I had to help the children about their lessons and help these bathe and yo to bed und non it is wine o'clock, And I have been half sick all day and must get-up early in the morning and wash To you must your me from writing much for as the I said to day about his sermon, I have made my introduction to be on that it will not do to make. to long that it will not do to make Atic hist very lengthy, George Bailey bold me to-day that he heard the "Fourth net was discharged

he did once before but he didn't

Now I wanted to write to you and have been thinking all the week what a nice time I would have writing to you to night but after I for home I had supper to get and the dishes to wash etc. and before I got through Adeline come in and wanted me to take a walk and I couldn't say no as I ought. Then when I got home I had to help the children about this lesson and help them bathe and go to bed- and now it is nine o'clock. And I have been half sick all day and must get up early in the morning and wash

So you must excuse me from writing much for as Mr. F said to-day about his sermon. I have made my introduction so long that it will not do to make the rest very lengthy.

George Bailey told me to-day that he heard the "fourth" reg<sup>t</sup> was discharged and some to honeved last might-And if it is so I don't want to send you much money for fear elwill be lost. I think I had better send one dollar in this and if I don't hear any more about it unother in a day or too and so on littlesend you the nest of the them. I picked and sold most three dollars worth of bernies last week I shouldn't dane litt you if you were here for fear I should get shook out, but I lett you I might sum a lot In this way if I only had some way to send them to market I am going to get put some up in cans for you mest winter, so you be a good boy and not seold But I must hurry I can hardly kup my eyes open now. I will write again in a day or two when I feel home. like it do good night blessed Your Emmy and come to Concord last night

And if it so I don't want to send you much money for fear it will be lost. I think I had better send one done dollar in this and if I don't hear any more about it another in a day or two an so on till I send you the rest of the ten.

I picked and sold most three dollars worth of berries last week

I shouldn't dare tell you if you were here for fear I should get shook out, but I tell you I might earn a lot In this way if I only had some way to send them to market. I am going to get put some up in cans for you ^to eat next winter, so you be a good boy and not scold

But I must hurry- I can hardly keep my eyes open now. I will write again in a day or two when I feel more like it. So good night blessed Yours- Emmy
