Dear Husband, I entireled to have written to you last evening and sent you some more money but I had the buth acho all might and could not write I went berrying yesterday and and get a six quart basket just as full as it could be, and a miserable steer part his mose in to them and lifted them all over and distroyed every one . I don't know whithis there was any connection between that and the buth ache or not but I know I was very unfortunate all day I dreamed last night that something wiled and and I was sitting in your lap with my head on your bosom and I was so happy I was almost glad somthing asked I was sick. But when I woke up I had no where to lay my ocherny face but

Dear Husband,
I intended to have written to you last evening and sent you some more money but I had the teeth ache all night and could not write

I went berrying yesterday and and got a six quart basket just as full as it could be, and a miserable steer put his nose in to them and tiped them all over and destroyed every one. I don't know whether there was any connection betwen that and the teeth ache or not but I know I was very unfortunate all day

I dreamed last night that something ailed me and I was sitting in your lap with my head on your bosom - and I was so happy I was almost glad something ailed I was sick. But when I woke up I had no where to lay my aching face but my lonly fillow. I ought not to say Louly lether as long as my darling children are spand to me July 29th Mell darling I was obliged to be one of writting the other morning rather suddenly so you will not get your letter quite so soon as I Entended. The Muldren have but five days longer to go to school and I am glad of it; for Jose is all sun down. Theis the provest little thing you ever see. I don't know but I shall be Long I have coased her to study so hard The don't bearn half as easy as Inne does, but she is horce as willing to study and has & had full as good lessons as the all through the term. But the is not Strong while Amie is the toughest hittle thing I some sow. I found last aught that for had a sore mouth . I nover sais any ones longue so covered with conter and I don't know what he make of it. I wish my lonely pillow. I ought not to say lonly either as long as my darling children are spared to me

Well darling I was obliged to leave of writting the other morning rather suddenly so you will not get your letter quite so soon as I intended. The children have but five days longer to go to school and I am glad of it; for Josie is all run down

She is the poorest little thing you ever see. I don't know but I shall be sorry I have coaxed her to study so hard

She don't learn half as easy as Annie does, but she is twice as willing to study and has I had full as good lessons as she all through the term. But she is not strong while Annie is the toughest little thing I ever saw. I found last night that Josie had a sore mouth. I never saw any ones tongue so coverd with canker and I don't know what to make of it. I wish you were here to prescribe for her The are having a drought again this year just us we did last and if it continues so the crops will be small for all these were such fair prospects for good ones in the early part of the Summo Bernes are very plenty and I wish you could be here to go berrying with one. I suppose you hear from your mother more than I do. I havet sun her some she moved. I would go and see her but I don't know where she lives and I don't know as I would find her But I guess I shall try after school is done . I have got my subbath - school lesson be been if I go to church to day so I will not write any more at present. Benjas Morse is our tracher. I believe I mere told you that Mrs. Deacon Roent-I never lold you that Mrs. Deacon Hent is dead. The died more than a mouth cogo. I don't know whether I ever lotel that - Mores of I Some delet and tout

you were here to prescribe for her

We are having a drought again this year just as we did last and if it continues so the crops will be small for all there were such fair prospects for good ones in the early part of the Summer

Berries are very plenty and I wish you could be here to go berrying with me. I suppose you hear from your mother more than I do. I havnt seen her since she moved. I would go and see her but I don't know where she lives and I dont know as I could find her

But I guess I shall try after school is done.

I have got my Sabbath-school lesson to learn if I go to church to-day so I will not write any more at present.

Reufus Morse is our teacher. I beleive I never told you that Mrs. Deacon Kent is dead. She died more than a month ago. I don't know whether I ever told you that Moses H Johnson "sold out" last Fall and or not. De Eastman und DBrown of Derry own his place. I wish you and I owned it don't you. But there is no use in wishing. But I will say good by for this time. Dones as ever Commy

Fall and or not. Dr Eastman and D Brown of Derry own his place. I wish you and I owned it don't you. But there is no use in wishing. But I will say good by for this time. Yours as ever Emmy
