

Hamover Feb 12th /66

Dear my Son

I rec'd a letter last week giving us the sad intelligence of the sudden death of your wife, Oh how sudden and unexpected, My dear Son as has been expressed, words are poor things to express what is needed on such an occasion but believe me I do feel deeply for you in this trying hour and would do you good, yes the greatest good, I would point you to the Fountain of comfort where all your sorrows and griefs can be assuaged. Yes it is true what the poet expresses that Earth has no sorrows, that Heaven cannot ^{cure}. My earnest prayer is that this sore trial of ~~your~~ ^{your} bereavement may be sanctified to you and to us all, allow me to express at this time some of my past hopes and desires & fears. When you left your family

Transcription:

[raised imprint reads: "CARSONS"]

Hanover Feb 12th /66

Leander my Son

I rec'd a letter last week giving us the sad intelignce of the sudden death of your wife, Oh how sudden and unexpected, My dear son (as has been expressed) words are poor things to express what is needed on such an occasion but believe me I do feel deeply for you in this trying hour and would do you good, yes the greatest good, I would point you to the Fountain of comfort where all your sorrows and griefs can be assuaged

Yes it is true what the poet expres^{^s}es that

Earth has no sorrows, that Heaven cannot ^{cure}

My earnest prayer is that this sore trial & bereavement may be sanctified to you and to us all, Allow me to express at this time some of my past hopes and desires & fears When you left your family and enlisted in your country's service I how anxious I felt that you might feel the need of God's help and make a full surrender of yourself to him that you might be useful in a two fold sense in the army and if your life was spared that you might return to your family a wiser and better man, but when you was so mercifully preserved and permitted to return home safe and well, to see such a seeming indifference, so little manifest sense of your obligations to God my heart was pained & I felt assured that God would try you in some other way that you would surely be chastened yet how little I thought it would be in this way and so soon But my soul it is a truth for God has declared it, that he does ^{not} willingly afflict and it is also declared that no chastening for the present is irksome but agreeable for the present is joyous but grievous but nevertheless it yields the peaceable fruits of righteousness if we are rightly exercised, I fear that in the past

Transcription:

and enlisted in your country's service O, how anxious I felt that you might ^feel the need of God's help and make a full
surrender of yourself to him that you
might be useful in a two fold sense in
the army and if your life was spared that
you might return to your family a wiser
and better man, but when you was so
mercifully preserved and permitted to return
home safe and well, to see such a seeming
indifference, so little manifest sense of your
obligations to God my heart was pained &
I felt assured that God would try you
in some other way that you would surely
be chastened Yet how little I thought
it would be in this way and so soon But my son it is a truth for God has declared it, that he does ^not willingly afflict
and it is also declared that no chastening
for the present is joyous but grievous but nevertheless it yields the [peacible*]
fruits of righteousness if we are rightly
exercised, I fear that in the past

span years you have made promises to God that you have failed to perform and do my dear Son be persuaded by one who loves your soul (and feels in a degree her own responsibility in its salvation) to repent and turn to God and do works meet for repentance, Permit me to enquire whether you have any definite settled purpose in respect to securing the salvation of your soul, Delays are dangerous and you have been forcibly reminded of that of late, and you have now a double responsibility resting upon you now the training of those two little motherless children O how much you need Gods help seek it I entreat of you now while you may, There is a divine reality in religion notwithstanding you see it so poorly exemplified, but perhaps there is more real good in the world than you are inclined to believe if you will search for it where it may be found, When I think you will be a strong witness in divine work

Transcription:

four years you have made promises to God that you have failed to perform and do my dear Son be persuaded by one who loves your soul (and feels in a degree her own responsibility in it's salvation) to repent and turn to God and do works meet for repentance, Permit me to enquire whether you have any definite settled purpose in respect to securing the salvation of your soul, Delays are dangerous and you have been forcibly reminded of that of late, and you have now a double responsibility resting upon you now the training of those two little motherless children. O how much you need Gods help seek it I entreat of you now while you may. There is a divine reality in religion notwithstanding you see it so poorly exemplified, but perhaps there is more real good in the world than you are inclined to believe if you will search for it where it may be found, When I think you might be instrumental in doing much good

I long to have you begin at once you could be a help to your ^{own} brothers and sisters and to society in which you live, yes I do so earnestly desire to see my children set out to serve God with full purpose of heart and not follow the example they have had all their lives, yes I see & feel its sad effects and lament and mourn over it daily
But still with all there is to deplore I want you to enjoy what I enjoy from day to day in seeking Gods help and studying his word, yes it is truly a balm for every wound and a cordial for every heart, I hope you will write soon and let me know how you feel and what you intend to do, and the particulars of Emily's sickness & death, and I stand ready to aid you in every way possible

As ever

As ever

Your own

Mother

Transcription:

I long to have you begin at once
you could be a help to your ^{own} brothers
and sisters and to society in which you
live, Yes I do so earnestly desire to see
my children set out to serve God with
full purpose of heart and not follow
the example they have had all their
lives, Yes I see & feel its sad effects
and lament and mourn over it daily
But still with all there is to deplore
I want you to enjoy what I enjoy from
day to day in seeking Gods help and studying his word, Yes it is truly a balm
for every wound and a cordial for every fear, I hope you will write soon and
let me know how you feel and what you in-
tend to do, and the particulars of Emily's sick-
-ness & death, and I stand ready to aid you
in every way possible
As ever
Your own
Mother