Homecoming Alumni Invade Town Saturday

Programs of Great Interest Have Been Prepared for Grads

Lectures, Football Game And Dance Are Offered

By Joye Churchill

"New Hampshire Alma Mater, All hail, all hail to thee!" This and others will be the stirring cries of the invading alumni tomorrow. It won't be a battle cry of freedom, but a worship cheer for the college whose honor they share. University graduates are coming back for Homecoming, the annual alumni day.

This year Homecoming has a variety of features on its program. All those returning are asked to register at New Hampshire Hall as soon as they arrive in Durham. At eleven o'clock Judge Jeremy Waldron, '12, will preside at an alumni conference in Murkland Auditorium. To meet the desires of those who are educationally minded,

Love and Humor Themes of New Mask and Dagger Play

By Edgar Costello

One Sunday Afternoon has about it a quality that is difficult to capture in print—manages to tell a simple and interesting story about simple and interesting people. Thus the New York Evening Post summed up this fine play when it was first seen on Broadway a few years ago. The Post was not alone in its opinion as critics were unanimous in their approval.

The play has a charm which appeals to no special class. People from all walks of life, including ex-Chief Justice Hughes, Alfred E. Smith, and other public men, have been warm in their praise for this story of tender love, ingratiating humor, and lifelike characterizations.

The story concerns Biff Jones, rowdyish but lovable, who is unwelcome at the home of the nice girls of the village. Biff, however, contrives to meet them in the park, where he plies them with his fascination. Complications set in when Grimes' favorite girl, Virginia, is won away from him by his enemy, Hugo Barnstead. In spite, Biff marries Amy, who really loves him, but still cherishes a secret desire for his last love. At the end Biff meets Virginia again, her charm gone, and ill-natured.

Two UNH Grads Are Commissioned

Morrison and Whitcher Get Wings at Louisiana

Robert H. Morrison, former student at the university, was among 98 cadets who received their wings and commissions as second lieutenants in the U. S. Army Air Corps on October 31 at the advanced flying school, Barksdale Field, Louisiana.

Lieutenant Morrison attended the university from 1936 to 1938. He received his primary school flight training at Darr School of Aeronautics in Montgomery, Alabama, and his basic flying at Gunter Field in the same city. Morrison has been assigned to Ellington Field at Houston, Texas.

Raymond R. Whitcher, graduate of the university in 1940 was also one of those commissioned. Whitcher was graduated from the university with a B. S. degree in mechanical engineering. While here he was captain of the ski team in 1939 and 1940. He received his primary school flight training at Graham Aviation School in Americus, California, and his basic flying at Cochran Field in Macon, Georgia, and now has been assigned to Stockton Field at Stockton, California.

Defense Expert Speaks to Co-eds At Convocation

Natalie Hammond Warns American Women to Wake up in Present Crisis

"It is high time that the women of America woke up to the fact that their support is very much needed in this country's preparations for national defense." These startling words were spoken by Miss Natalie Hayes Hammond, Commander of the Women's Civilian Defense Corps, at women's convocation on Wednesday. Although she has been working in this particular field for only two years, she has

Berman, Manton in Violin and Piano Recital Wednesday

Concerti Form Major Part of Varied Program; Manton Plays Own Piece

By Richard Dent

Milton Berman, with Robert Manton as piano accompanist, presented a violin recital in New Hampshire Hall Wednesday evening.

The major part of Mr. Berman's program was devoted to two concerti, the "Concerto in G Minor" by Vivaldi, and Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor." Of the two pieces the latter was by far the best. Performed in terms of delicateness rather than sonority, the "Concerto in E Minor" put on the semblance of a purely esthetic piece in preference to the vigorous, broad style with which it is usually interpreted. This was especially evident in the "Allegro Molto Vivace" concluding the work. While Mr. Berman's technique was sufficient to cope with the Vivaldi Concerto, his interpretation was cold. This coldness was further augmented by the hard thin tone the violinist used throughout the movements. The "Finales" of the two works brought out the best in the artist playing. There was a quite noticeable mingling of technique with interpretation and feeling.

Following an intermission Robert Manton played his own "Prelude and Fugue" and MacDowell's "Rigaudon." They were played extremely well. Only favorable criticism may describe it. Supremely sensitive to MacDowell and a grand interpreter of his own composition, Mr. Manton occupied no secondary place on the program.

In conclusion Mr. Berman performed pieces by Bloch, de Falla, and Kreisler. Of these the "Contribution" of Bloch was outstanding. A depth and mellowness of tone, not exhibited before, made the selection deeply affecting.

Stunt Night Shows Set for Tonight

Varied Program of Plays At New Hampshire Hall

Finals in the Stunt Night contest takes place tonight at 7:30 in New Hampshire Hall. Two cups, one for the girls and one for the boys, will be awarded to the plays chosen to be the best by the judges.

The censoring and elimination board consisted of Dr. David Walters and Mr. Robert Webster, who saw the preliminaries Tuesday and Wednesday. Infernal machines, Shakespeare, corpses, hectic flurrying, draftees, impersonations, lighthouses, pushbutton tuning, strange anatomical specimens, and others combine to form many interesting programs. Several are on the "Hellzapoppin" type with some of the actors being in the audience.

Originality and 'lack of suggestiveness' were the important factors looked for by the judges. All plays to be presented tonight show good thought in writing and direction. Color is very prominent and many costumes show the result of unique handwork.

Representatives of the following organizations were selected to perform this evening: Lambda Chi Alpha, Kappa Sigma, Phi Mu Delta, Pi Kappa Alpha, Theta Chi, Pi Lambda Sigma, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Theta Upsilon, and Hetzel Hall.

Kloz Speaks on Unions at Economics Club Meeting

The honorary Economics Club held its pre-initiation meeting last Monday in the Trophy room of the Commons. There were many students and faculty members present. Speeches by Professor Harry W. Smith and Carroll W. Degler were followed by refreshments.

The guest speaker was Key Kloz of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. His talk was fascinating and engrossing, since he has had a great many different occupations, such as that of lumberman, clerk, truck driver, newshawk, steel worker, secretary, and National Representative of the Steel Workers' Organizing Committee. These enabled him to make his audience most appreciative. He described his contractual relations, and the theory of contrast, which he explained thoroughly by actual reference.

Kloz also illuminated the subject of the position of Unions with his explanation of wages and methods of negotiations. He said that the unions in America exist by virtue of the basic democratic right which can also curtail them if they don't fulfill their obligations to a democratically organized society.

Dark Horse, Plowright Fight for Second Place; Hannibal Dowst Dies

By Herb Smith

Flanked by an axe on one side and the Pettee Girls on the other, Arthur Kenneth Lucy—The Puckerbrush Kid—The Pride of Booger Ridge, found himself swept into the much sought after office of Mayor with a decisive victory over all opponents this afternoon.

Holding a press conference in his out-house, the seat of feverish activity for the past few days, His Honor, Larrupin' Lucy, (standing on the only bench in sight) was very emphatic in stating that he was well aware of the pit-falls that were under him, but that he would use the same pit-falls tomorrow to collar the tough Tufts' mauler, the invading Jumbo.

Official figures of the balloting have not as yet been released, but it was reported that the axe toting Lucy had polled more co-ed votes than any other

Frosh 69 Club Promotes Study of Ancient History

Evidence that the freshman class has at least one group of serious-minded students is shown by the recent organization of the 69 Club, which has as its purpose the furtherment of the study of ancient history.

At the first meeting, held last Tuesday afternoon, the following officers were elected: President, William Bryant; vice-president, Elizabeth Brown; treasurer, John Cushing; secretary, Barbara Clapp.

The next meeting will be held in Murkland Lobby on Tuesday, November 11, at 2:30 p.m. All freshmen who are interested in becoming members of this club are invited to attend.

Homecoming Dance Tomorrow

The annual Homecoming Dance will be held tomorrow evening at New Hampshire Hall from 8 to 11:30. Student Council is sponsoring the dance at which the music of Ray Belair and his eleven piece orchestra will be featured. Many eastern campuses have been well pleased with the smooth danceable music of the well known band.

They have just closed an engagement at the Tantilla Gardens in Richmond, Virginia, where they were well received by all.

Carl Carlson, in charge of general arrangements, was aided by a special committee chosen from the Student Council body.

Welcome Home

Every year at Homecoming week-end it is the privilege of the undergraduates to welcome the alumni back to the campus for a brief repetition or renewal of their college days. This is not an obligation or a duty, but rather a pleasure for both parties concerned. On the part of the grads, Homecoming offers an opportunity to forget their everyday lives and to once again capture some of the spirit and zest of their younger days by mingling with the present student body. From the students' point of view this week-end will afford an opportunity to visit with the former undergraduates and to learn their attitude toward many pertinent questions after they have graduated and gone on into the world of business, industry, armed service or domesticity.

This year, more than ever before, Homecoming will have more of a significance. With many of the grads employed in the army, navy, marines, air corps and vital defense industries the students should realize and appreciate to a greater extent their education. They will be impressed by the fact that the University of New Hampshire can and does prepare men and women, not only for life, but also for the defense of our country.

The University authorities and organizations have made a concerted effort to make the stay of the alumni an enjoyable one. From the mayoralty campaign, through Stunt Night, the defense symposium Saturday morning, the football game, fraternity and sorority dinners, and the Homecoming dance, everything has been planned with the interest of the grads as the major consideration.

Every year in the fall it takes returning students several weeks to reorient themselves in campus life. Main reason for this is the absence of the senior class of the year before. It is not unusual to hear upperclassmen remark that it seems strange not to have the seniors back. In the course of four years a class as a unit and its members as individuals become an integral part of the University life and it requires some time for the gap it leaves to be filled.

To all graduates, former students, and alumni we extend a most hearty welcome for a happy visit and a beneficial one. We can think of no higher tribute to pay you than to say that it certainly seems like "old times" to have you all back.

Nothing to Brag About

Despite repeated warnings from several quarters this year's mayoralty contest has been, on the part of the contestants, one of the most shameful and disgusting ones for many years. As we write this editorial the voting has not taken place, but it is obvious one candidate is most deserving of the office of mayor for he has put on the best show from all points of view and has at all times refrained from resorting to the telling of obscene or off-color stories.

This sort of vulgarity should have passed from campus life with the disappearance of the racoon coat and the flag-waving Joe College. It has no part in a supposedly refined and modern co-educational institution such as this one.

To the Editor

To the Editor and to Albert St. John Winderford:

It would seem that a few words should be said about the recent article by Winderford in the NEW HAMPSHIRE about ghouls, ghosts, and "drunks" which were alleged to have been inhabiting the Barracks last Friday night. To be sure, there may have been all the supernatural elements that Winderford mentioned, but we, who are living in West Hall resent the accusation that there were any "drunks" in the corridors. We enjoy the privilege of living in the least expensive 'dormitory but we defy anyone to say that it is not as respectable as any of the more expensive dormitories for men on this campus.

No doubt, the remarks made have been taken in fun on this campus but our NEW HAMPSHIRE does reach many people who may have taken this story literally. Many of the fellows send the paper home to their folks and it does not help the reputation of these dormitories or of the university to have such grossly exaggerated and false stories published.

Fisheries Program Given at Meeting

State Officials Speak At Seacoast Meeting

Seven state officials spoke Wednesday night at the annual public dinner meeting of the New Hampshire Seacoast Region Association held at the Commons. These speakers included President Fred Engelhardt, chairman of the State Planning and Development Commission; Donald D. Tuttle, state publicity director; Edward Ellingwood, state industrial agent; Herbert E. Warfel, biologist with the New Hampshire Fish and Game Department; and Curtis H. Page, member of the New Hampshire State Senate.

A report of the progress on regional fisheries, a program now being undertaken by the state and seacoast region to determine the possibilities of re-establishing fishing as a major industry, was presented by Professor C. Floyd Jackson, chairman of the biological institute and of the fisheries research committee. The results of a factual survey of the Piscataqua river region as a defense area was discussed by Frederick P. Clark, state planning director.

Preceding the open meeting, members of the Seacoast Regional Development association held their annual business meeting.

Notice

On Sunday evening, November 9, at 6:45 in the Academy Chapel, the Phillips Exeter Academy will present the Hampton Institute singers. The public is cordially invited.

Freshmen!

Last year at the Vocational Lectures, an executive of the Hood Rubber Company stated that he considered extra-curricular activities on a par with grades in the selection of graduates for positions. Scholastic work is important, but marks are not everything. You will notice in last year's GRANTITE that there are many organizations offering these activities. The NEW HAMPSHIRE is an important one. You may not be literary-minded, but certainly you can earn yourself a position on the Business Board.

For over a month now you have been sitting around receiving the paper regularly, perhaps without realizing that someday your class will have to take over the reins. Start learning the ropes now—Come up to the Business Office at Ballard Hall on Friday at 4:00 o'clock. Let's see a good turnout!

Plowing in a 1600 mile telephone furrow

for defense

To assure coast-to-coast telephone facilities adequate to meet future defense needs, the Bell System is constructing a 1600 mile, $20,000,000 cable line between Omaha and Sacramento.

Several newly developed "plow trains," working from opposite ends of the line, are burying the cable for maximum protection. They dig deep furrows, lay two cables in them and cover them with earth—all in one continuous operation. Their meeting will mark completion of the first all cable line across the continent. Carrier systems will be operated in the cables — one direction of transmission in each.

This vast project is just one of thousands in which the Bell System is now engaged to provide additional communication facilities so vital to Army, Navy and defense industries.

Hockey All-Stars Defeat Stoneleigh

Stoneleigh College suffered a 5-1 defeat at the hands of the New Hampshire All-Stars in a hockey game Tuesday afternoon on Memorial Field. Contrary to previous reports, this is the same score by which the New Hampshire girls defeated their opponents at Stoneleigh last year. Stoneleigh scored their only goal in the first few seconds of play, after which their opponents tightened up and kept them from further scoring. This, too, is a repetition of last year's game.

One of New Hampshire's goals was scored as a result of a penalty bully, a very unusual occurrence in field hockey. This penalty was called during the second half when the Stoneleigh goalie committed a foul by stopping a sure shot with the wrong side of the stick.

The Stoneleigh line-up included: Birdrey, Anderson (Capt.), Giffey, Forsythe, Simpson, Thompson, Winkelman, Reynolds, Booth, Brust, Bartra. Substitutes: Rice for Birdrey, Lucas for Simpson, Spaulding for Thompson, Watson for Brust.

The line-up for New Hampshire: Pearsons, Kennedy, Brewster, Barton, Griffin, Blood, Osborne, Austin, Maurice, Weden, Page (Capt.). Substitutes: Perkins for Brewster, Goodrich for Barton.

Goals: in the first half for Stoneleigh: by Forsythe. For New Hampshire: by Barton, Pearsons, Kennedy. In the second half for New Hampshire by Pearsons and Brewster.

After the game a social hour was enjoyed in the games room of New Hampshire Hall. Refreshments were in the charge of Claire Parker, sports leader. Yesterday the all-stars journeyed to Medford to meet the Jackson girls, whom they defeated last year by a score of 6-0.

19 Schools to Run In X-Country Meet

N. E. Championship To Be Awarded Victors

The Annual New England Cross-Country Meet will be held tomorrow morning on the Lewis Field course at 10:30, with a field of 127 starters. Nineteen schools, representing every New England state, will participate in the 2.6 mile grind, which was won last year by the hill and dalers from LaSalle Academy, of Providence, R.I.

Featuring tomorrow's race will be the personal dual of Emile Gazdajka, Manchester Central star and N. H. champion, and Robert Goodell, 15 year old Massachusetts champ from Beverly. Gazdajka, in winning the N. H. cross-country meet held here last Saturday, set a new course record.

Presque Isle High School, of Maine, is the only newcomer in tomorrow's race. That they are a formidable squad is evidenced by the fact that they finished third in the nationals. The following schools are entered in the race:

N. H. — Central High (Manchester), Dover, Portsmouth, Raymond, Mass. — Arlington, Beverly, Brookline, Gardner, Lowell, Melrose. Maine — Presque Isle. R. I. — Burrillville (Harrisville), Hope St. High (Providence), LaSalle Academy (Providence), North Providence. Conn. — Hartford, Manchester, New Britain. Vermont — Waterbury.

Theta Kappa Phi Foils Theta Chi

Theta Chi, behind Carl Carlson, out-classed the highly favored Hetzel softball team Monday afternoon, 6-3. Doug Russell was the other half of the fraternity battery. Carlson received air tight support in the field and at the plate. Aside from Carlson, who pitched beautiful ball, Tom Burkhard, Charlie Richardson, and Bob Stewart starred for the winners. Bernie Ekman looked good for the lost cause.

Scoring seven runs in the third inning, Theta Kappa Phi made a comeback for the championship. Bill Cone was right again as he set Theta Chi down 7-5. Jerry Wolcott was Cone's receiver and he did a very good job.

Begin Definitely Out; Gordon on Doubtful List with Bad Arm

By Charlie Untiet

Riddled by injuries, George Sauer's Wildcats face Lew Manly's Tufts Jumbos at the stadium tomorrow afternoon at 2 P. M. The worst blow dealt to Sauer was the loss of Don Begin, the quarterback, who suffered a separation in the shoulder. He definitely will not be available for Tufts and it is doubtful whether he will be ready for Boston University. His quarter-backing has been a mainstay of the Wildcat offense this season.

Gordon Hurt

Captain Dick Gordon is also on the casualty list. He received an arm injury against Norwich and his playing tomorrow is still a questionable matter. His linebacking has been terrific and his defensive ability has been even better. Al Sakoian and Art Galli are also on the shelf. Sakoian has a badly bruised leg and will not see action and Galli has a bad knee.

To cope with the acute situation that has arisen in the backfield, Sauer plans to start Pete Meneghin at quarter. He may start Steve Flis and hold Meneghin as a replacement to Judd. Flis, however, has a thigh injury

Tufts Strong

Tufts is coming up with a team that is much stronger than usual. With the exception of last season New Hampshire has been lucky against the Jumbos, and this year they hope to reverse the charges against a weakened Wildcat. Lew Manly has a line that is almost as heavy as that of Norwich. Reider Anderson and Russ Rowell, the tackles, weigh 230 and 193 respectively. The boys who are expected to turn Saur's hair gray are co-captains Art Harrison and Bob Rutter. These lads have been the core of the Manly charges all season.

Coach Sauer was rather worried about the outcome of the engagement. "I am worried about the fact that there may be a psychological let down. The boys were keyed for Norwich and due to the bruises received I am afraid of a let down," Sauer said.

Jayvees Defeated By Frosh Seconds

With Dave Smith scoring on an end run in the second period, the University of New Hampshire freshmen seconds avenged a previous 7-0 defeat, winning 6-0 over the Junior Varsity Wednesday afternoon.

The freshmen threatened several times, especially in the last period, but could only tally once on Smith's ten yard gallop. The J. V.'s made a desperate bid in the second quarter but were stopped on the ten yard stripe.

The freshmen second-stringers had a definite edge throughout the game, but the J. V.'s were without the services of two of their star backs, John Pappas and John Papandrew, both having sustained injuries in scrimmages with the Great Bay Packers. The Packers will play the Junior Varsity here Monday afternoon.

The lineups: N.H. Freshmen seconds —le, Taggart; It, Gleason; 1g, Johnson; c, McReel; rg, Holton; rt, Dougherty; re, Parker; qb, Clute; rrb, Glucko; 1hb, Bowles; fb, Campbell.

Junior Varsity — le, Cram; 1t, Davis, Wigin, Evans; 1g, McGinnis; c, Leavitt, Stevens; rg, Catalfo, Nettleton; rt, Lowe, Ellis; re, Picard, Billings; qb, Lopez; rrb, Orton; 1hb, Hager, Clesner; fb, Chamberlain.

Dick Sughrue, Fred Charron, Jerry Thayer, and Bill Keough stood out for Theta Kap and Carl Carlson was the loser's star. His defense collapsed when the explosion occurred in the third.

The playoff series will resume Monday with Theta Kap squaring off with Hetzel. Bill Cone will throw for the fraternity men and John Sideris for Hetzel.

The All-Star team played in Portsmouth this afternoon. Carl Carlson was expected to start for the All-Stars.

OPEN HOUSE

On Sunday, November 9, between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. fraternities will hold open houses to which freshman men and transfers are welcome.

Kitten Harriers Continue Success

Sweeping to their sixth victory in as many starts, the University of New Hampshire freshman cross-country team added Portsmouth and Dover to their list of victims Wednesday afternoon over the 2.6 mile Lewis Fields course.

Lloyd Nevius, colored track star of Portsmouth high, broke the tape in 14:04 minutes, fourteen seconds more than Gazdajka's record-breaking performance here last Saturday. Bob Cummings of Dover finished 25 yards behind Nevius, then Scammon, Carlson, Jennison, and Churchill took the next four places for the freshmen. Phil Pallas finished tenth to assure the New Hampshire victory. Portsmouth was 20 points behind the freshmen with 49 and Dover came in last with 55.

The freshmen have now completed their regular season with a perfect record, and now face the New England Inter-collegiate meet to be held at Franklin Park in Boston, Monday. The freshmen may be favored because of their one-point decision over Rhode Island, and decisive victories over Dartmouth and Harvard.

started several defense units in Massachusetts and has been requested to conduct similar organizations in other states. Approximately sixty per cent of the women of Massachusetts have responded to this call for help.

Miss Hammond did not give her personal opinion of the war, but she did say that the government has admitted that we are in a shooting war. This means that the first line of defense is at home. In the event of possible aerial attack, it is necessary that the women of this country are trained to protect their homes, especially along the Atlantic seaboard, which would probably be attacked first.

Women Must Pass Exams

The Red Cross is doing its share of training the civilians, but, as yet, its program still does not include gas fighting. Up until two months ago there was not one civilian gas mask in this country. In order to enlist in one of these defense corps, women must pass difficult physical exams. While in training they are taught how to read maps, repair machines, fight fires, and campaigner in the 15 year history of the event.

Runners Up

John Mead, the off colored horse, called by all his professors—"The Coffin Lid Kid," eked out second place honors over "Safari" Plowright, who found out that his black boys were not accustomed to the heat of one of Durham's mayoralty battles. Weighted down by a little too much armour plate for participation in modern battle, Souse Dowst found that he could not compete with the other candidates and so bowed his neck to the inevitable blade.

His Honor released a statement to the effect that the citizens of DURHAM would be well re-paid for electing him to the seat of high esteem. He promised them two of the most magnificent shows that have ever been staged this far south of Booger Ridge "ware they reele put on showes that be showes." The first will take place this evening at New Hampshire Hall where the "Kid" will preside over the Annual Stunt Night. The second per-are given instruction in other fields. The directors of these defense units want it thoroughly understood that they want women who are really interested.

In closing Miss Hammond said that too often people shirk their duty and are willing to let someone else shoulder the responsibility, but she hoped that her talk had made some people realize just how serious the national emergency has become and will make them take denite steps to do their share.

Capt. John J. Brown U.S.N. To Address Newman Club

At the next regular meeting of the Newman Club, Sunday evening at 7:30 in New Hampshire Hall, Captain John J. Brown, U. S. N., executive Officer of the Portsmouth Navy Yard, will be the guest speaker.

formance will be given during the half of tomorrow's game with the Tufts Jumbos.

Mayor vs. Officials

"In past years", the Mayor stated, "them football officials have been a little against us'ns here at Dur-ham. I mean to show 'em that this hear admystration will stand no foolishness when it comes to decide whos goin' ta win the festivities."

Inaugurating something new this year, the Mayor and his many colorful and efficient managers called at all girl dormitories and sororities to carry voters to and from the polls. True to his campaign promise that all girls here in Dur-Ham should be tended to, Mr Lucy braved the elements last night to taxi freshmen girls home from visiting at the various sororities, explaining all the while why "Booger Ridge's Bundle for Durham" should be elected mayor.

Pettee First

The Pettee girls, the first feminine fortress to fall into line had this to say about the outcome of the heavy balloting, "Cher-chez les femmes—and you can't lose, not if they're Pettee femmes."

Congratulations from the defeated candidates were tended Mr. Lucy—most of them stating in one way or another— 'Every DOG has to have its day.'

Varsity and Frosh X-Country Squads Await N. E. I. C. 3A

Kimball, Scammon Lead Teams Into Action; Rhode Island Favorite

The regular schedules of both the varsity and freshman cross-country squads having ended last Wednesday, when the frosh defeated Portsmouth and Dover, the two squads have now settled down into the last few days of training before taking part in the New England Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association next Monday in Boston.

The varsity have little hope of winning. For that matter there is just one team in New England that has been given any consideration as a possible winner and that team is Rhode Island, which has been made a big favorite. The Rhode Islanders were second in the national collegiates last year and they are even better this year. However, there is a chance that New Hampshire will find a place among the other top flight teams.

Coach Paul C. Sweet will pick his starters from the following: Captain Roland Kimball, John French, Royal Holmes, Wayne Lowry, James Sleeper, Joe Pushee, Richard Emery, and Alson Brown.

Frosh Have Good Chance

The freshmen will go to the New Englands with far higher hopes of coming home with the bacon. In fact, win, lose, or draw, the Kittens will bring home one cup due to the fact that they have three legs on the eight year cup which Rhode Island held last year by virtue of its win in the last year's cross-country meet. But, this year, that cup comes to Durham to stay as a result of wins in '33, '34, and '36. During the eight year stretch which ended last year, no other club won more than twice.

Coach Sweet has announced that Richard Scammon, Charles Carlson, Raymond Churchill, and Lewis Jennison shape up as sure competitors since they have shown the greatest amount of ability and consistency throughout as well as socially and recreationally, three faculty members, Miss Ellis, Dr. Eppelsheimer, and Dr. Hanson, and Lieutenant Commander Singer, U.S.N., will talk on four different aspects of national defense. Following that there will be a classroom bull-session when anyone in the audience can state his opinions or argue the next person's.

Mayor to Welcome Alumni

After the symposium and alumni luncheon at Commons, Captain Dick Gordon and his football fighters will provide an afternoon of thrills and spills as they meet Tufts' Jumbos on Lewis Field. This game, the main attraction of the day, is between two traditional rivals and should prove interesting as both teams have thoroughly surprised gridiron fans this season. Besides the band's usual performance, the mayor of Durham will welcome the alumni between halves and stand by to push the Wildcats on to victory.

At a meeting in Commons, the Alumni Club officers will discuss the activities of the club and other miscellaneous past, present and future business.

Sponsored by the Student Council, the Homecoming Dance will be held at the New Hampshire Hall Saturday evening 8 - 11:30. Ray Belaïre and his popular eleven-piece orchestra are the scheduled music makers.

the season which ended without a loss for the Kitten hill and dalers. The remaining three men will be chosen from among Philip Pallas, Clarence Rollins, Oscar Brown, John Atwood, Gordon Nightengale, and Arthur Currier.
