Mike and Dialers Choose New Officers

Weaver Succeeds Dimond Barrett, Taylor Elected

At a well attended meeting of Mike and Dial Friday afternoon, Betty Jo Weaver was elected program director for the next year. Arthur Barrett was reelected technical director, and Ann Taylor was named business manager.

Betty Jo has been active in broadcasting on campus for two years, serving as chairman of the important director's committee for the past year. She succeeds Sid Dimond.

Ann Taylor is a veteran actress, having participated in several campus studio programs and directed others. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega, and succeeds Alice Moran.

Two members were unanimously voted into the club. Catherine Sullivan and Arthur Wiggin were selected to receive bids.

Because of the enlarged club, the workshop will return to a weekly program beginning next Friday afternoon. The first program in the new series, a half-hour romantic drama, entitled "What's Your Name, Dear" will be heard over WHEB at 1:30 p.m., February 6.

The play was cast after the business meeting and the following roles were filled: Jack, Tom O'Donnell; Ellen, Barbara Perkins; Martha, Ann Taylor; The Doctor, Elwyn Dearborn; Max, James Kalled; The Butler, Leon Eckman; Mr. Barnwell, Roger Judkins; and Carstairs, Joseph Ricciardone. The radio play will be under the direction of Betty Jo Weaver, new program director.

Following the 1:30 presentation of "What's Your Name, Dear" the Mike and Dial program for the following weeks will be heard at 4:45 p.m.

Auxiliary Fire Dept. Elects New Officers

The Durham Auxiliary Fire Department recently elected Wilfred A. Osgood captain of the hose company and Paul Blood is lieutenant. Captain of the ladder company is Nevelle Taylor and Arthur Robinson, Jr., is lieutenant.

Brag Hanson and Midge Moore to Reign as Carnival King And Queen with Aides Jane Haubrich and Marcia Robinson

U. N. H. gentlemen and gals evidently prefer blondes as evidenced by the choice of Aide Jane Haubrich, Queen Midge Moore, and Aide Marcia Robinson, to reign Carnival week-end.

The latest flash on Carnival Week-end activities is that Brag Hanson will co-reign as Carnival King with Queen Midge Moore. Brag, a transfer from Green Mountain College and a member of Phi Mu Delta, was the varsity's kicking ace last football season.

Queen Midge Moore has a role that is not new to her for she was an aide at the Junior Prom last year and an aide at this year's Mil Art Ball. A member of Alpha Xi Delta, Midge has been prominent in many undergraduate activities. These include: President of Mortar Board, member of Pan-Hellenic, Outing Club, Yacht Club, Classical Club, Rifle Team, Junior Prom Committee, and the Freshman Hop Committee. Midge transferred here from Colby Junior College her freshman year.

Aides Chosen

Aide Jane Haubrich was one of the original Pep Cats and since then has been one of the most prominent of the cheer leaders. She has also been active in Granite Varieties, Home Economics Club, Mike and Dial, and the girls' hockey and basketball teams.

Aide Marcia Robinson is doing a repeat performance this year, for at the 1941 Winter Carnival she was an aide to Queen Nancy Kinsman. She is a member of Chi Omega, Executive Secretary of W. A. A., and a member of Blue Circle and Outing Club. She was also on the Big Sister Committee.

The coronation ceremony of the king and queen will take place at the Ball this year because of the fact that Outdoor Night was cancelled.

Definite word on the Carnival Band will, without doubt, be released in the next issue.

Chief Bourgoin Reports Loss of Five Seniors

Chief Louie Bourgoin reports that he has lost five senior men to practice-teaching this semester. This leaves quite a gap in his force, but he is breaking in as the new "student cops" three sophomores and two juniors. These men will be good for this semester and next year also, while the sophomores are on the job for two more years. The force under the supervision of Chief Bourgoin is in charge of Sergeant Robert Prescott.

Picture on Africa Shown Newman Club

"Africa will be the spoils that will be divided at the next peace conference following the present war," declared the Rev. John McGarry, D. C. L. to the members of the Newman Club last Sunday evening. Emphasizing the fact that most people do not realize the vast amount of natural resources of the dark continent which includes rare metals, gold, and its famous diamond mines. Fr. McGarry stated that this will be one of the very important issues to be decided by the victorious nations.

In discussing the geography of Africa, Dr. McGarry brought out that it was but a five hour trip by bomber from South America to Dakar, and that this spot is vital in the present conflict.

The main object of the lecture was the presentation of a colored film taken by the traveling priest when he visited in Africa a few years ago. The picture vividly portrayed the beauty and majesty of the continent, with interesting scenes of personalities and customs.

After the picture, refreshments were served by Clare Langley and Dorothy McCready who are in charge of the social committee of the club.

Warning!

All students are asked not to use the walk from Nesmith Hall to the Field House, via the railroad track. Five undergraduates were nearly picked off by the Flying Yankee the other day and the railroad officials called from Dover asking that this situation be remedied.

So—in the future use the main drag!

Name New Members To Chest Committee

First Meeting to be in NH Hall Thursday Night

Selections for the remaining positions of the College Chest Fund Committee were made recently by the three religious organizations on campus. These choices will augment the five members chosen by the students at large in last week's election. Caroline Adnoff and Leon Eckman will represent Hillel, the Jewish club; Henry Swasey and Phil French, the Student Christian Movement; and William Cone and Ralph DesRoches, the Newman Club.

The first meeting of the new committee will be held at seven o'clock, Thursday night in New Hampshire Hall. Preliminary plans of organization, and discussion of aims and purposes will be held. The general chairman of the committee will be chosen.

On February 12, Wilmer J. Kitchen, general secretary of the New England Student Christian Movement will address the members of the board. Mr. Kitchen, who has been in close contact with the chest funds on other campuses throughout New England, will discuss the methods and goals of these groups as an aid to the local committee.

SKATING TRIP

Since the skating trip to Mendum's was so successful last week another one will be run Thursday, February 5, by the Outing Club. Transportation will leave Ballard Hall at 5:00 p.m.

Senior Class Picks Committees for Commencement Day

Class Day Activities to Be Suspended Because of Telescoped School Year

Because of the telescoped school year, and the concentration of commencement activities, it has been found necessary to abolish several of the normal senior class committees, and to do away completely with Class Day and Class Day exercises. The traditional planting of the Ivy, however, remains on the program, and Ashley D. Nevers prominent student debater and member of the senior class, has been selected as the Ivy Orator.

Selected as the Class Marshall, that senior on whose shoulders rests much of the burden of arrangements for commencement exercises, is Raymond Doyle.

A complete list of Commencement Committees follows: General Chairman: Frederick Draper; Vice-Chairman: Roger Judkins; Secretary: Elinor Doyle.

Commencement Ball

New Hampshire Staff Holds Annual Banquet

Following a precedent of the last five years, the "New Hampshire" held its annual banquet last Thursday evening in the Commons Faculty annex.

Course in First Aid Offered for Credit

Attention men! Here is your opportunity to get an Instructor's Certificate in first aid. A new course, Physical Education 63, is being given under the department of Physical Education and Athletics this semester. This course is similar to the first semester course, Care and Prevention of Injuries, except that it lays emphasis on First Aid.

Physical Education 63 will be given by Coach George Sauer, of the department of Physical Education and Athletics. Other members of the department intend to aid Mr. Sauer if enough sign up.

A First Aid Instructor's Certificate will be given upon satisfactory completion of the work, and two credits will be given also. Classes are to be held twice a week during the semester at the Field House. Examinations will be given from time to time to see that the student is getting the main points of the subject matter.

At present one class meets from ten to eleven on Tuesdays and Thursdays. If enough wish to enroll another class will be held Monday and Wednesday at ten and eleven, as was the hour for Phys. Ed. 63, the first semester course. All students who are interested should sign up with the Registrar as soon as possible. If anyone can't take the course at the scheduled time he can indicate his free periods on Monday and Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday from nine o'clock on. Also, he can indicate if he prefers a night course.

Tech College Begins New Defense Courses

Defense courses already begun in the Tech college are now in full swing. Many of these are to be completed this month while others will carry over to March and April. Courses discussed but not yet completely planned are those on Welding Theory, Welding Engineering 2, Personnel Supervision and Training 2, Metallography of Foundry Practice, Personnel Administration, and Steam Engineering.

New Hampshire's State Board of Education is using the University's welding shops for new courses in welding to be held in DeMeritt Hall from four in the afternoon till five o'clock the next morning. These classes will be on a schedule of shifts. Starting February 2, ground school evening classes will be held in DeMeritt Hall.

Dorothea Dowell New Defense Secretary

Due to the fact that Paul Wheeler former secretary, has left campus to join the Marines, a new secretary-treasurer has been elected for the Student Defense Committee. This office is now filled by Dorothea Dowell. Because two members have left there has also been the acquisition of two members, namely George Riolo from SAE and Hy Score from Phi Alpha.

At the meeting held Friday afternoon, Farm Labor as it is handled at the university was discussed, but no definite conclusions were drawn. The time for meeting has been changed from Friday at 4 to Wednesday at 4. The offices as usual are in room 309 Ballard Hall. Members of the committee will be there off and on during the day, so any problems can be brought there or referred to Ray Doyle, president of Student Council, who is also serving on the committee, and who has offices at 309.

Measure Up

The crisis which the American schools and universities find themselves facing at the present time is something entirely new and different from anything that they have ever been exposed to before. Of necessity the students are finding out that they have to GIVE, if not in actual money or in the actual bearing of arms, they are finding that they have to give in TIME and THOUGHT.

In our own university, the students and faculty alike are now just beginning to realize that they will have to plan differently at the beginning of this semester than they did at the start of last semester. They must work from both sides—condense the period of time to be spent and at the same time increase the speed of presentation and learning.

Before the entire nation there is but one task—that is to win the war that we are now so forcibly engaged in. At the same time it is acknowledged by the leaders of our universities and our country, that to win the war is useless, unless at the same time we establish and lay a foundation for the kind of peace and readjustment that will guarantee the safe keeping of all those American aspects of life for which the war is fought—for which the lives and safety of friends are sacrificed.

The college student is right in the middle of this tangled affair. He has to do the fighting and later he has to do the adjusting and readjusting. How well he can do the fighting was evidenced in the last world struggle—his readjusting was not of the same quality. In the present conflict his fighting worth is again being tested and found sufficient, but the real test will come after the cessation of the physical combat, and the rebuilding process is started.

There can be no bungling. the college student must begin now to MEASURE UP.

An Open Letter

There has been a great deal of controversy in past months over the "Greek World" column in The New Hampshire. It has been called 'polite dirt', waste of space, unimportant, etc. The content of the column is written by the members of the various fraternities and sororities on campus, not by members of the paper staff. However, since the column is not fulfilling its purpose, a new system will be put into effect with this Friday's issue. Space in the paper will be allotted to each fraternity, sorority, AND DORMITORY on campus. Only items of special and news interest will be printed—regardless of personalities. "News" such as "a successful vic party was held—Joshua Jones went to Boston to see HER" will be cut out of the copy.

This system will not work unless we get the complete cooperation of all the houses. We do not hold the news of one house above that of another.

All material MUST be in the office by 9:30 P.M. on Wednesday and Sunday nights.

No more than twenty typewritten lines will be accepted from any one house for any one issue.

All material written legibly if not typewritten.

If we receive your cooperation your house will benefit as much as will The New Hampshire.

ON THE SPOT

by Nick

It seems that the campus prefers blondes. This was shown by the choice the students made at the polls the other day for Carnival Queen and her aides. We were surprised with the choice the students made and we are taking our hats off to Midge, Jane and Marcia. The probable line-ups for Carnival Ball will be listed in next week's column, and incidentally Brag Hanson ought to make a handsome Carnival King.

We wonder if Jacobsen has filled the blank yet! You know that one, fellahs, the blank between his ears? . . . The 'personality kid' duMont of the 400 Club is importing from Norton Heights and all the boys are looking forward to meeting the sub-deb. . . . ATO's Dick Smith hit the hay at seven o'clock Saturday night. The last time he went to bed early he was awakened at 3:15 by that vile smell under his sleepy nose.

Those four B.U. juniors picked an awful week-end to hunt up blind dates. They were last seen heading in the direction of Congreve. . . Sigma Beta's Bob Morrison has left for the Marines. . . 'English' Dick Merrifield still doesn't believe that the British will fight to the last Greek. . . 'Flying' Dick Dent got in the groove by playing "Goodbye Mama I'm off to Yokohama" nine times in the Diner the other night. . . In a couple of days he'll be a Flying Cadet.

Red Crory is getting desperate. He's still looking for a date for the Carnival Ball. What's the matter, Red, aren't there any more blind women left on campus? . . . Ed Bove is stepping out again. He got himself a good date for Sigma Beta's house dance. . . There must be some attraction to take Jerry Thayer home week-ends. You're not sore are you, Jerry?

The girls in Scott are having regular week-end parties. What's the matter with the boys in this town, gals? . . . That kleptomaniac who stole the sugar bowl from the Diner had better return it. He doesn't think that Red knows about it, but he'd better return it p.d.q. . . Sam Askenazy, the boy who uses the hair tonic came back a total wreck, but happy, after a hectic week-end in Boston. . . Birthday greetings are in order for Ed Mahowski, Jan Eckstrom (who, incidentally, received a beautiful set of pearls from Red), and the Kimball twins, who are celebrating theirs today. . . That tunnel from Phi Alpha to Bickford has hit a snag. It seems that Bickford is built on a rock ledge.

Elly Mauricette got Lilian Hoyt to pinch-hit for her last Saturday night. Freddy Draper showed Lil around the polished surface of Alpha Xi. . . Connie Phillips is still waiting for a return engagement with Steve Flis. . . The Aggy basketball team was red hot 'other night in losing to the Frosh. They're looking forward to a practice game with the Varsity. . . "This is no Laughing Matter" is being sung after receiving our marks yesterday, but we got id of our "Blues in the Night" by having a couple of Stan Platek's "Moonlight Cocktails". . . Giovanangeli turned in a great job of officiating at the two games Friday night. We wish we could see more of him in action. . .

WANTED: A small boy to open blue colored letters. APPLY TO Jack Clark. Be sure you catch him before his eleven o'clock on Saturday because he just ain't around after that until his eight o'clock Monday. . . Meserve says he's in. . . In what, Say, Driscoll, you'd better hit the books. That 98 in Mechanics must be brought up. . . The team that Camp Langdon sent up here made a fine showing against the varsity. It was a good gesture on the part of the department and we wish the 22nd would come back for another game.

Alpha Xi's Blues Brawl turned out to be the social highlight of the week-end. Practically every fraternity was represented, but plus the usual major-

Phys. Ed. Honor Society Initiates New Members

New members recently initiated into Phi Epsilon, physical education honor society, are Eleanor Mauricette, Shirley Smith, Claire Parker, Wayne Lowry, Mikton Hall, Edward Morrow, and Bragdon Hanson. Members are selected from the outstanding men and women junior and senior majors in physical education.

Charles Schoonmaker was guest speaker at the meeting held on January 28. He gave an interesting talk on the athletic equipment room.

Philip DeGregory, one of the charter members and vice-president of the society, has been called into the armed service.

Library Displays Ready For Lobby Show Cases

There is an interesting list of displays to be presented in the library during the winter season. From February 1 or 2 till February 14 a display of recent book gifts to the library will be exhibited in the lobby show cases. On February 7 the "Art of Puppetry" will be presented. The remaining list contains "Oberammergau Wood Carvings," February 15—March 10; "Metalwork—Old and New," March 11—April 14; "Furniture Design Today," March 17—31. Music hours will remain on the same schedule as last semester.

ity of Theta Chi's there was an increased representation from SAE. Could it be that joint vic dance that was held a couple of week-ends ago? The costumes ranged from Dave Crockett's 'Marryin' Sam' outfit and Nancy Kinsman's and Tom Burkhardt's blackfaces to Tony Touart's tails and odd pants.

In closing we hope that no organization follows the lead of the sophomore class in cutting out their social events. A week-end has been allotted to them and we see no reason for their not putting it to good use.

Couplings of the Week

By James Kalled and Paul Bandidos

Vaughn Monroe—Vaughn sings the new tango foxtrot from Paramount's The Fleet's In—a haunting melody called Tangerine. The tempo is medium slow and on the 'beam for smalt stepping while Monroe injects the fem appeal. Watch this one. Bluebird.

Tony Pastor—Here is something really purty. The full orchestra swells the gorgeous melody of the Lamp of Memory most of the time coupled with terrific swirling saxes. Bluebird.

Count Basie—Harvard Blues is based on "Reinhardt," a byword familiar to every Harvard undergradate. The words of this torrid concoction are dished up vocally by Jimmy Rushing with an out-of-this-world trombone obligatto that is truly delightful. Okeh.

Gene Krupa—Here is a waxing that offers startlingly different styles on its two sides. In All Through the Night lush, sweet music in deliberate tempo is the background for a continuous vocal by Johnny Desmond. But in Ball of Fire which is the plattermate, Gene and the boys hit it, and brother it's fast, hot and tops. Okeh.

WEEK'S THEME SONG

Artie Shaw—Once in a great while someone will come out with a number that defies time and repetition. Such a disc is Nightmare. It has a sultry weird melody that smacks of camels and harems, deserts and harems, oases and harems. Bluebird.

Now that the basketball team has finally won its first game of the season, maybe they'll surprise us all and make the second half of the schedule better than the first.

It looks as though we had better start praying for that snow for carnival. It's been quite a while since we had any decent snow here—so. . .

Lacrosse Prospects Promising; Ice Men Tackle Colby on Tenth

by Bob Nareau

Tony Dougal, one of the newer and more successful members of the University's coaches came to New Hampshire in 1939 from West Texas State Teachers College where he was Assistant Director of Athletics.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree at Temple University in 1933, and an M.A. at Columbia in 1940. After his graduation from Temple, he held the post of Head of the Physical Education and Commercial Department at Smethport, Pennsylvania until 1936, when he took the position at West Texas State.

Here at the University he holds the position of assistant football, hockey and lacrosse coach. In 1940 his lacrosse team was in a three way tie for the New England championship losing only one game while downing such clubs as Dartmouth, Williams, Tufts, Springfield and Tech. The only loss came at the hands of Harvard who along with Dartmouth and the Dougalmen were tops.

There should be another great club in the making with veterans like Monica, Mackel, Martin, Improta, and a promising group from last year's freshman club coming up.

The 1941 lacrosse team was also one of the better clubs in New England and impressive records in this sport speak well, since the large majority of the preparatory schools do not play this sport, so that the coaches have to start from "scratch" in developing the players.

The hockey team resumes play after a two weeks lay-off on the tenth of this month against a strong Colby team at Waterville. Also remaining on the schedule are contests with Middlebury, Boston University, M.I.T., Bowdoin, and Northeastern, two of which (M.I.T. and Northeastern) have already been beaten by the Dougalmen once this season. With any breaks at all a fairly successful season should be in the making, even though the service has called a number of the boys.

FOUR YEAR PHYS. ED.

Speed-up seems to be the by-word in the country today. Everywhere one goes he hears that the defense industries are increasing their rate of production, that the armed forces are increasing in efficiency, and now, we hear that the physical education program on campus will be intensified.

Physical education, when participated in wholeheartedly by everyone, fulfills its purpose of creating sounder bodies and encouraging team work on the part of the fellows. It seems that the physical education department isn't satisfying all the boys at the present time, but we must bear in mind the fact that no program reacts favorably on everyone. It also appears that the dissatisfied are those who don't indulge wholeheartedly in the activities, but sulk back and try to do the least amount of exercise possible. In these classes, the instructor and the fellows should be perfect friends. The student cannot possibly enjoy it unless he tries everything in a cooperative and competitive spirit. A repetition of these exercises enables one to have more confidence in himself, it enables him to become acquainted with previously unknown fellows, it enables one to withstand longer periods of muscular exertion, and it enables one to get along with a group of young men.

"Getting Along" Important

If anyone expects to be in the armed forces sometime in the future, he will need all these assets. "Getting-along" is necessary in the army or navy and eagerness to try new things always is a sign of progressiveness. At the present time, all separate sporting activities such as wrestling, boxing, and fencing have been eliminated in favor of events that take in a large group at one time. So far it seems to be going satisfactorily.

No Every-day Classes

It has been proposed by some, however, that the program should include all classes and that it be taken every day. The four-year idea might cause numerous fellows who don't do any sort of exercise whatsoever a lot of good. It will help them keep fit. But the every day scheme is out of proportion. In a short while it would become boring and maybe too monotonous. The boys would get sick of it because, after all, these fellows have no goal such as the basketball players have. The ball players have in mind the on-coming games and are getting prepared for them. Thus they don't mind daily practices. But the other students have no such goal. The primary function of this university is to teach men and women the arts and sciences, and studying is a necessity. It seems inevitable that a daily exercise period would tend to curtail some afternoon studying. We are firmly in favor of

Hoopmen Get First Win; Bomb Ft. Constitution

Team Scores 19 Points In Last Five Minutes; Subs Take Prelim, 51-23

In the feature game of the evening, the University of New Hampshire varsity basketball A team turned back the Fort Constitution, 22nd Coast Artillery five, 66-49, last Friday night at the Field House. With five minutes to go the score was tied up at 47 all; but the Wildcats turned on the heat and scored 19 points in the remaining five minutes to come out on top by 17 points.

The Swaseymen concentrated strictly on teamwork and shooting and played an all out offensive game, as the high score indicates. The best part of the victory was that it was a victory—the first for New Hampshire.

As noted more than once before in this issue, the varsity quintet has been improving all season and this game just served to prove it because the Army team really had some pretty fair ball players. Of course, it's always easy to use the word "if". However, it becomes more and more obvious that if we could play some of the schedule over, a few of the games might now result in different scores.

Easy Victory For Seconds

In the preliminary game, the varsity second game took the Fort Foster "E" squad over the hurdles to the tune of a 51-23 score.

Bob Wheeler and George Alimi played leading roles for the varsity A team and Arky Vaughn, Bob Mathews, and Stacey Clark were outstanding for the second team.

Classy Frosh Quintet Meets Devens Team

At Full Strength for "Mayor" Lucier's Outfit

Already victors in four of their six engagements George Fielding's classy freshman basketball squad has been strengthened by the appearance of Bob Stafford, sensational Vermont all-state forward, and Tom Cotter, last year's captain from Arlington, Mass., high.

Both these boys were on the inactive list for the first semester, Stafford just having recovered from an appendectomy, and Cotter from an automobile accident. The acquisition of these players counteracts the loss of Bill Lewko, scrappy forward from Claremont, who has left school.

The kittens hope to resume their winning ways tomorrow night when they tangle with a team from Fort Devens coached by the inimitable Lt. Al Lucier, ex-mayor of Durham. A game with the strong Navy Yard Apprentices from Portsmouth is pending and may be the prelim for Saturday evening's varsity tussle with powerful Connecticut.

For the past week Coach Fielding has been experimenting with various combinations, the Bobotas, Britton, and Stafford trio in the front court looking especially potent. With Stafford in the line-up the yearlings will be at full strength for their objective tussle with the great St. Anselm's freshman team on February 21.

Actors Kept Busy By Keesey in Play By Mask and Dagger

Rehearsals Progressing Well for "The Man Who Came to Dinner"

On stage! Actors and actresses! The voice of the stage manager is heard above the clamor and bustle of backstage confusion. And so another rehearsal has begun. Act one, Scene one. Director Keesey, sitting stage right, motions that actors must take their places. The rehearsal begins. Alex Woolcott, alias Don Crafts, sweeps (and we do mean sweeps) onto the stage. No, folks, he's not the janitor. He's the leading man in this melodrama, and he is in a wheelchair. But it's only the beginning folks, it's only the beginning. Locomotion for this side-tracked columnist is provided by none other than our Winnie. Winnie, that lovely Kennedy girl from that Vermont border. La Kennedy is doubling for a St. Bernard in this little piece, taking the part of Miss Preen, nurse to the hero.

Jeannette Toohill is here too. At Don's elbow she takes dictation, answers phone calls, soothes the Mighty's wrath and ministers to her Sherry's needs—why, even she doesn't know. You will remember Jeannette for her able portrayal of Belle in last year's Mask and Dagger production of "Ah Wilderness." In her new role she attempts an entirely new type of character—and well too, we think.

"The Man Who Came To Dinner" will be shown in New Hampshire Hall February 25, 26, and 27.

At 309 in Ballard Hall From 4 to 6 we welcome all. The orchestras we recommend Will make you dance from end to end.

Smith Hall Gay Spot of Otherwise Dull Week-end

Smith Hall was recently the center of one of this season's most entertaining parties. An informal get-together held there last week-end was one of the only bright spots on campus.

The inclemency of the weather and the large number of students who went home made the town look sombre and dismal. Although the rain and sleet postponed a skating party in the afternoon it did not hinder the merry evening affair.

Music, hot and smooth, was provided by the "vic" for the many dancers. Other groups played cards, ping-pong and various other games throughout the evening. Amidst the festivities a splendid lunch of cookies and cocoa was served. Rita Reid acted as chairman of the entertainments.

At 309 in Ballard Hall From 4 to 6 we welcome all. Our lost and found department loves To deal in reticules and gloves.

AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS

RAID RULES

1. The signal for an air raid is an extended series of short blasts on the fire whistle. (Public announcement will be made if this is changed.)
2. When the alarm is given, dress in warm clothes and go to a previously determined place. When you go to bed at night, have an outfit of warm clothes handy to your bed.
3. Be sure someone is watching your premises for fire bombs, but otherwise stay inside.
4. If a raid is expected, have sand, shovel, and pails on hand. Draw water in bathtub and other large receptacles for fire-fighting and emergency water supply.
5. Do not use the telephone during a raid except in extreme emergency. It is the duty of your warden to report damage and call help.

BLACKOUT RULES

1. Roller curtains are useful as blackout material only if painted with a special solution.
2. Outside shutters are good, but the weatherside must be covered with black oil cloth, overlapping three inches.
3. One of the best blackout devices is a wallboard shutter made to fit into the inside of the window frame and edged with felt.
4. Heavy cloth curtains sometimes are effective.
5. If you have a fireplace, fit a metal shelf over the chimney to hide the glow.
6. Close and lock doors of all rooms not blacked out.
7. Remove all outside electric bulbs.
8. Blackout barns, garages, and sheds in same manner as house.
9. When your blackout screens are ready, go outside to see there are no leaks.
10. Open outside doors only when no light will shine through them.
11. Use no flashlights or lanterns outside.
12. Don't drive an automobile during a blackout. Don't smoke outside.

If you have any questions, ask your warden. He is your friend. Give him all the help you can.
